THE DAYTON FIREMAN IS DEAD.—The local editor of the Dayton Gazette, now stopping in this city, received the following dispatch from that place at 4 o'clock Saturday evening.

"Kunte is lying in an insensible state. His Doctor says he will not live."

DAYTON OPERATOR.

We were informed yesterday that a dispatch had been received that Kunte was dead, but cannot vouch for the truth of it. It is but a matter of a few hours at most with him, but how it is with his murderers?

CONNECTION.—In one account of the Firemen's fight on Friday evening, we stated that the attacking party came out of the saloon of "Tom Andrews." Mr. Andrews desires us to say that this is a mistake,—that they did not come out of his saloon. The Chief of Police confirmed his statement.

DEATH OF A TRAVELER.—On Friday evening last a man was discovered on board the train which arrived on the C. C. & C road about 7 o'clock, in an insensible state. He was removed to the St. Clair House by officers Warren and Lawrence, and Dr. Strong called to render medical aid—but too stranger was too far gone for recovery. He died in a short time, not having been able to speak since arriving here. From papers in his possession it seems his name is Nathaniel Case, of Bristol, Trumbull Co., and that, having been West to buy land, he was now on his way home. A singular preparation for death seems to have been made by him. While in Indianapolis on Thursday last he deposited $175 with the Express Co. to be forwarded to Mr. Geo. Taylor, Cashier of the Bank at Warren, O. He had but $13 in money with him, but several notes for liquid signed S. P. Adams, of which two were for $600 each (one of them canceled) and one for $640.40. He had also papers showing that he had purchased several lots in Kansas. Apparently he had sold his farm in Bristol, taken the notes in payment, and been located in Kansas.

His friends have repeatedly urged us to place my medicine for producing miasma within the reach of the Lathers of the United States, but have been unable to enter a claim for its use, as it is not in the power of any to do so.

In order to avoid some confusion, we repeat our offer to the suffering families of America a remedy which has rendered me known throughout the Old World.

In regard to the "Amis de l'Humanité," I need only say that it is a noble and useful society, and that but their persecutors have served only to exalt and endear their names. Sheerest of material efforts have been made to bring the suffering within my reach, and those who have experienced us shall find us ready to respond to the needs of mankind.

MATRIMONIAL.

It is my desire to have the services of the physician and surgeon, but their persecutors have served only to exalt and endear their names. Sheerest of material efforts have been made to bring the suffering within my reach, and those who have experienced us shall find us ready to respond to the needs of mankind.
